The marriage of Miss Elsie Kline
Baker, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Baker, and Mr. Richard Wheatley
Lewis, son of Col. N. Lewis, U. S. A., retired, of Utica, N. Y., will take place this evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, 1801 Biltmore street.

Only the members of the two families and a few intimate friends will witness the ceremony, which will be performed by Rev. Dr. Pierce. Lieut.
Lewis, son of Col. N. Lewis, U. S. A.,
street.

Col. and Mrs. Robert M. Thompson are spending a few days in New York.

Miss Marguerite Barbour will spend the week end in Philadelphia as the guest of Miss Elizabeth Samuel.

Miss Elizabeth Samuel, of Philadelphia, who was a recent guest of Miss Barbour, will entertain at a luncheon tomorrow in her honor at the Philadelphia Country Club.

Mrs. William Jennings Bryan and Lieut. Gen. Nelson A. Miles, U. S. A., were among the out-of-town guests at the marriage of Miss Elsie Kline Baker, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Frank
Baker, and Mr. Richard Wheatley
Lewis, son of Col. N. Lewis, U. S. A., retired, of Utica, N. Y., which took place in New York, at the Temple Beth-El.
The bride was given in marriage by tissue and tulle, with a court train of the same materials and old family lace wrapping. Her long tulle veil was held by clusters of orange blossoms. She wore a diamond brooch, a gift of the bridegroom, and carried a large bou-quet of white lilies and white roses.
She was attended by her sister, Mrs.
Jacob M. Platt of Cincinnati, who wore blue tulle and lace, with a light brown picture hat. The four bridesmaids wore white lilies and white roses.

For Beautiful Hair Nourish the Scalp

Dandruff must be removed and the hair roots nourished to stop falling hair and itching head. No matter how unsightly your hair, how badly it is falling or how much dandruff, simply rub Parisian Sage well into the scalp.
The hair roots are nourished and stimulated and grow new hair. Even all dandruff removed with one application, itching scalp and falling hair cease; your hair becomes soft, fluffy, seems twice as abundant, and really radiant with life and beauty.
Parisian Sage is a daintily perfumed liquid, sold by O'Donnell's Drug Store and druggists everywhere; it's not only invigorating and refreshing, but perfectly harmless and inexpensive. You will be surprised and delighted with Parisian Sage, for there is nothing that will so help to double your present attractiveness as luxuriant, glorious hair, and this tonic treatment is all that can possibly be desired.

GET UNIFORMS AT COST.

Students at Military Schools Must Not Be Charged Additional.

The act of July 17, 1914, authorizes educational institutions to which officers of the army are detailed as professors of military science and tactics to purchase from the War Department for the use of their military students such stores, supplies, material of war, and military publications as are furnished to the army "with the cost of transportation added."
In an opinion on the subject Judge Advocate General Crowder held that this statute contemplates that the uniforms for the use of students should be furnished to such students at the War Department price with only the cost of
